She was fumbling with the handle of the door and was altogether in a state of such confusion that Dick, who was greatly taken with her beauty, turned his face to face with a tragedy, complicity with her instructions.

"I can't help you in some way," he said, "but I can't help you in some way," by the sight of the girl's evident distress.

"What would you run think," she asked, crossing herself, "of a man who would let the girl to whom he had been married for two years and who had lived with her home, all happiness, to be married to another man?"

"I should say that he was a cad," Dick answered severely, and Miss Henderson smiled and shook her head at tears at his vehemence.

As they were entering the vestibule of the railway station Dick felt that his own eyes were full of tears, following the direction of her eyes, as a young stranger of pleasing appearance

"You'll protect me from Isaac, won't you?" the girl asked breathlessly, and Dick felt that he would quite equal to the occasion, though the other man was the heavier many pounds.

The stranger advanced, smiling, and fell well within the range of Mollie's keen vision. He was a young man, with a face as fresh as Heatherstone's stony one, and he stopped short, and his outstretched hand fell back to his side.

"Molly!" he said in great surprise.

"What is the meaning of this word?"

"Let me pass," replied the girl in tones of a tragedy queen. "I have discovered your perjury, and I am going home."

She pushed on, and the young man who had at first showed signs of an intention to block her progress, fell back.

"Am I before crazy?" the girl cried, sinking into a chair. "Didn't you tell me that he sent you to meet me, that he had sprained his ankle? A nice excuse, indeed!"

"Of whom are you speaking?" asked Dick, bewildered. "Of Jack?"

"Yes! Yes! That man! Jack—my Jack!"

"But that isn't my Jack. My friend is at home, as I told you, with a sprained ankle. I don't understand it at all. Mr. Somerville asked me—"

"Of course it is," Dick answered, almost testily. "He told me to look out for that tall, dark girl with a red cape, and this cousin, and—and—"

"And you mistook me for her? Oh, I see it all! Oh, Jack, Jack, how I have wronged you!" And, to Dick's consternation, the young lady immediately went off into a fit of hysteria, which necessitated the summoning of the attendant and the removal of the sufferer into an inner room for the application of restoratives.

While Miss Heathcote was thus occupied, Dick, who had been standing are very attractive.

Silk Waists.

We have two lines, one at $1.00, the other at $5.00, with a full range of shades in each. They are very nicely made, and if you can get your size it certainly does not pay to have them made to order.

Specials in Men's Underwear.

Early in the summer the mills manufacturing men's underwear for winter were fighting for trade. We were in a position to buy in large quantities, and we took advantage of it. Our customers. We secured underwear at extremely low prices considering the cost of the new materials. If we had to pay the present mill prices most of our clients would cost us more than we are now selling them at.

Men's Union, plain and ribbed, 25c to 1.00 a garment.
Men's Wool Flannel—44c, 50c, 65c. 75c a garment.
Men's All Wool, 50c, 75c, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50 to 5.00 a garment.
Buy Underwear, Fleece Lined, ranging in price from 15c to 40c.
Men's Winter Hosiery Union and Wool, very special low prices.

Women's Ready-Made Skirts for Large People.

This season we made a point to have a lot of our best little ready-made up with large bands. Very few people now that a garment fits.

Specials to wear—$1.00, 2.50 and 5.00.
Ready-to-wear Skirts are booming. Hundreds to choose from.

Millinery Special for Saturday.

We will have ready for Saturday a lot of Trimmed Hats at Fur Ruffs.

Collector's coats are causing an extra demand for Ruffs this season. We now carry in the year that the new fur coats are made.

Men's and Boys' Overcoat Excellence.

Mr. Ahl one of the very top-to-date estates in Ontario. He has a large number of very solid but he turns out and is held in cold comfort in every game.

One stock of crockeries, cutlery and paintings is as large as most of the most city stores. Buying from the manufacturers and selling to the retailers is the business of the estate. There is a provision to give you $1 value and the best goods.

There are many things about good clothes which you don't see, and which you might not appreciate if you did see them. The things are the part of a garment where cheapness is most noticeable.

Every line in our great overcoat stock has been chosen carefully on account of some peculiar merit. We can give you this year the best assortment of Ready-to-wear that has ever been offered. The quality of the material is of the best, the work and quality of the material, and the workmanship have not been equalled. Last year our overcoat sales were double what they had been the previous season and this year promises to be another record breaker.

MILLINERY

Our Patrons have been literally besieged with buyers and beholders, who are profuse in their praise of beauty, individuality and variety of Autumn headwear. We have experienced such a rush of trade in an short a time. Many have gone to the millinery, because we have been kind enough to show them EXCELLENCE THEM ALL. This we are ready to believe, as each remnant were substantially supported by the quick selling to scores of Napaneh's best dressed ladies.

Orders come with us, and every order, whether modest, dainty or most exacting, is executed in the same prompt and careful manner.

Let us be in your corner in your dressmaking. We would advise our customers to leave orders in the week, and thus avoid delay and disappointment. We invite all interested to inspect our Millinery. You will see a display sure to please you.

MARRIED IN HASTE. A dispatch from Grand Rapids, Mich., announces that after receiving a letter from his wife, announcing that she had decided to leave him, Fred H. McKee, of New York City, placed the muzzle of a revolver in his mouth and pulled the trigger.

THE BEAVER. The above marks the end of a romance which began several years ago in the neighboring town of Des Moines. At that time Fred H. McKee was a resident of Des Moines, and a young lady of Belleville went there on a visit.

THE BEAVER. She met McKee and the pair were mutually attracted by each other, with the result that they married in haste, and before long the girl bride found that to her fell the task of repaying as injuries. Disregarding the warning of the people, she determined to be better to her husband. Since then there has been a constant quarrel and the marriage has been a failure. Now the end of the romance is in the tragedy told above.—Belleville Journal.

REAL AMERICAN COAL OIL

Wallace's Drug Store.

Being your drugstore here. We seek them secretly and keep them close. Your robes won't smell of coal oil if we fill your suit.

NAPANEE MADILL BROS.

Flannelette Sale

Thursday Morning, December 3rd 10 o'clock.

This will be one of the best sales of the season, as the quality of the Flannelette is good and the price—Well, you couldn't buy it wholesale at the price we will sell it for.

1,000 yards Saxony Flannelette, Canadian dyed, in plain colors of Pink and White, guaranteed fast colors, 35 inches wide, sale price 8c.

Christmas—Four Weeks From To-day.

Just think of it—four short weeks. Are you one of those thrifty, thoughtful ones who are planning now? If you are one of those who leave their shopping till the last day? There is no doubt that those who plan ahead come out best—they avoid the rush and crush previous to the last few hours—they get a better selection and more attention. Some may have the amount of money they will have later, but that they say—choose anything you want, pay a deposit and have it laid away till Xmas.

Particularly Does This Apply to Furs.

The later you buy these the less the choice. Some lines get low and entirely sold out before Xmas, and are not to be replaced at anyone near the price. There is no present more appreciated by a woman than a Fur, and they are useful and becoming to all. If you are thinking of Furs, and it is something we have not in stock, let us order it for you so as to be here on time.

A Pretty New Dress Would Be Appreciated.

Nowhere but at Madill's can you find the full assortment we have, and at much lower prices than the city stores ask for the same qualities. Nearly all our goods are exclusive patterns and everyone of them new. Just casually end out from your friend about what she would like then come and select early.

Fancy Neckwear and Belts.

If you are looking for anything that is not very expensive suppose you select a pretty Collar or Belt. There's some of the prettiest and newest ideas of these in stock now that we will keep for you. We have brought in big new stock of them and make it a specialty. Your pocket book will not be touched had either. You can start at 25c and go up to $2 and all prices between, every one of them new and dainty goods.

Dollar a Yard Silks.

Black Peau-de-Se. A beautiful rich double faced quality, heavy, firm weight, correct fabric for coats, dresses and skirts, per yard $1.00.

Pewny's Kid Gloves.

Most every person in town knows this make. They are the softest and most pliable kids on the market. Every new idea is adopted as it comes out in the way of fasteners, buttons or whatever it may be. They come in White, Black or colors—dressed or undressed—lined or unlined.

Women's Fur Lined Capes.

We are able to quote some very low prices this season. For example, a fur cape for a good quality, genuine black fox, top, Kaljos line. Squirrel lined garment up to 37.50.

Sealette Coats.

Last week we told you about extra values in certain at from 1.00 to 5.00. This time the news is about two low priced items, and 75c a pair, as follows:

Coats and 75c a pair. Coats and 75c a pair in the lot. They are 1 year's long, neat design, tapered borders.

There are a pair. Coats and 75c a pair in the lot. 10 inches wide, tapered edges. (If you think you want either line or coat, do not hesitate).

Ivory Vestings for Waists 75c for 50c.

More white and cream colored for waists than anything else. This is the report from all Right. The demand was strongest we secured a case of bright mermaid vestings at 50c a piece. While they are not chosen the quality for 50c a pair. Two and a half to three yards make a waist.

What's New in Buttons.

For trimming shirt waists two new numbers in different shades will please you. One line is an enamel button, two pieces, one about the size of the other a two cent piece. They are white and gold. The quality for 50c a pair. Colorings are White and Gold, Blue and Gold, Brown and Gold, and White and Gold.

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

The following books have been put in the Public Library this week:

"The Pool in the Desert," by the late Canadian author, Mr. J. W. Coyne. This volume contains four stories full of interesting portraits of domestic life in India.

"Letters from the Front," by William Dean Howells. This is a collection of letters written from New York to friends at a distance in the front of the struggle encountered in seeking the most natural way of life.

"The Captain's Tale," by R. H. Stockett with a Memorial address by Mr. Stockett and a Bibliography. This is a story of a man's life, written in a style which is both popular and scholarly.

"The Romance of Modern Education," by Archibald Williams. This is a book dealing with the history of the modern educational system, and its influence on the life of the individual.

"The Dominant Strain," by Anna Chapman. This is a story of a man's life, written in a style which is both popular and scholarly.

"Felt Gay" After the Second Box of Iron-ox Tablets.

January 6, 1903.

About a year ago, being a sufferer from indigestion (a bad attack), I bought two packages of Iron-ox. After taking one I was conscious of an improvement, and I remember that the second one did the business, and I felt gay.

By the Ontario publisher, the great deal of valuable literature of the day is made up of the matter of the day.

THE DAY'S MARKETS.

Very livestock man, merchant and farmer. This section knew of the quotations on Toronto markets, and the quotations on the whole of the day. When a daily newspaper is published, it is a large amount of space to bright, crisp, well-arranged, market information, with price quotations from day to day, it is a sure of a place in the favorable judgment of men interested in business affairs.

For many years the furnishing of such information has been a regular feature of the morning papers of Toronto, but it is not found that to many readers, particularly at points distant from Toronto, the information thus published is of little value, to many cases it is not until the afternoon to read reports of the day's business.

The Toronto News has a speciality in this department. Large space is devoted to this department, and the illustrations in price of the various commodities, such as live stock, grain, butter, cheese, wool, fur, etc., are noted each day. The illustrations of this paper, with closing quotations, arrive at a very long record of the day's business.

Now may be regarded as a valuable addition to the Toronto News, as it is a paper which is not only a source of information, but it is also a source of entertainment.
